Message From The Top Management

Dear Stakeholders,

The global pharmaceutical industry continues to navigate a period of profound transformation. Geopolitical developments, evolving trade policies, regulatory expectations and macroeconomic uncertainties are reshaping the way healthcare businesses operate across the world. While these factors present near-term challenges, they also reinforce the importance of resilient organisations that can adapt with agility, innovate with purpose and consistently uphold the highest standards of quality.

India remains one of the most promising pharmaceutical markets globally, driven by scientific capability, manufacturing excellence and an expanding healthcare ecosystem. Yet, as the industry evolves, sustained success will increasingly depend on innovation, operational excellence and the ability to respond to changing market dynamics with speed and discipline.

At Indoco, these principles have guided us for decades. As we complete another year of our journey, we are proud of how our teams have translated challenges into opportunities while remaining steadfast in our commitment to patients, healthcare professionals, customers and shareholders.

Our performance during FY 2025-26 reflects the strength of this foundation. Across our businesses, we continued to build momentum through focused execution, disciplined investments and a clear strategic direction. Our Domestic Formulations business expanded its portfolio with the launch of several new products, including the introduction of Cyclopam AC, Iceraft Tablets, Triz LM, Sensodent DSP and Sensodent DCP toothpastes in the OTC segment. We also continued our strategic shift towards mass specialities, enabling a more diversified and future-ready portfolio.

The growing confidence of the medical fraternity in our brands is reflected in our prescription performance. During the year, Indoco advanced to the 20th position in the IPM, recording 10.94 crore prescriptions and moving ahead of several established industry players. Our Institution division achieved its business targets for the fifth consecutive year, while Rexidin M Forte Gel emerged as the No. 1 dentist-prescribed oral care brand. These milestones reaffirm the trust that healthcare professionals continue to place in us.

Quality has always been at the helm of what we do. The successful completion of the USFDA inspection at our Patalganga API facility with zero observations, along with the successful EU GMP (European Union Good Manufacturing Practice) inspection of our Goa & Baddi formulation plants by the Malta Medicines Authority, Germany - LAGeSo authority, further demonstrates the maturity of our quality systems and our steadfast commitment to regulatory compliance. These are the result of a deeply embedded culture of excellence across the organisation.

Our commitment to operational excellence also gathered further momentum. The implementation of our Master Manufacturing Plan across all the units has begun delivering measurable improvements in productivity and manufacturing efficiencies. Recognition of our Baddi manufacturing facility with the Silver Award at the National Awards for Manufacturing Competitiveness is a validation of our continuous improvement journey and our pursuit of world-class manufacturing standards.

Our international business and research capabilities continued to gather momentum. During the year, we strengthened our international product portfolio with multiple USFDA final approvals. We also expanded our consumer healthcare footprint with the launch of toothpaste in South Africa. These achievements reflect our growing capability to deliver differentiated products across global markets while strengthening our international presence.

Sustainability continues to be an integral part of our long-term growth strategy, guiding the way we create value for our stakeholders while fulfilling our responsibility towards society and the environment. Across our operations, we are advancing initiatives that improve resource efficiency, reduce environmental impact and strengthen operational resilience. The increasing adoption of renewable energy through our open-access solar power projects at our Patalganga and Rabale locations, coupled with focused efforts in energy optimisation, reflects our commitment to lowering our carbon footprint. The EcoVadis Bronze Medal awarded to our Patalganga API facility is an encouraging recognition of these efforts and motivates us to further elevate our sustainability journey.

The awards and recognitions we received during the year, including the Champion of Quality Award from the U.S. Pharmacopeia and the Most Preferred Workplace 2025-26 Award are a tribute to the passion, integrity and dedication of every member of the Indoco family. Their commitment continues to be our greatest strength.

We will continue to invest in science, innovation and differentiated products, strengthen our manufacturing capabilities, accelerate digital transformation, expand our global footprint and deepen our commitment to quality, sustainability and governance. Most importantly, we will continue to build an organisation that is agile, resilient and prepared for the opportunities of tomorrow.

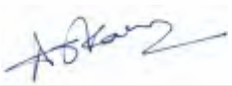

For almost eight decades, Indoco has evolved with changing times while remaining true to its core values. Every milestone in our journey has been built on trust earned from patients, and healthcare professionals, regulators, partners, employees and shareholders. That trust remains our greatest responsibility and our strongest motivation.

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to all Indocoites for their unwavering dedication, our healthcare professionals and customers for their continued confidence, our business partners for their collaboration, and our shareholders for their enduring trust and support.

Together, we will continue to advance healthcare, create sustainable value and build a healthier future.

Conservation of Energy, Technology Absorption and Foreign Exchange Earnings and Outgo

(Particulars pursuant to Rule 8(3) of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014)

A. Conservation of Energy

a. Steps taken or impact on conservation of energy during the financial year 2025-2026:

i. Brine Chiller Optimization at Patalganga Plant: Modification carried out at Patalganga Plant resulted in single compressor working instead of two compressor working. Further the second compressor has been utilized as a Standby Compressor for reliable operation. This has resulted in energy savings of approximately 5,15,520 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 54.12 Lakhs.

ii. The HVAC system operation has been optimized through continuous monitoring and demand-based operation at Patalganga Plant which has resulted in energy savings of approximately 1,67,904 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 17.63 Lakhs.

iii. Boiler operating hours has been reduced due to improved efficiency at Patalganga Plant which has resulted in energy savings of approximately 1,30,904 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 13.74 Lakhs.

iv. The HVAC system operation has been optimized through continuous monitoring and demand-based operation at Rabale Plant which has resulted in energy savings of approximately 1,35,619 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 14.24 Lakhs.

v. Modification in Main PCC panel at Goa Plant-I has resulted in energy savings of approximately 1,29,600 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 9.72 Lakhs.

vi. The HVAC system operation has been optimized for 12 AHUs at Goa Plant-I which has resulted in energy savings of approximately 1,10,964 kWh Units amounting to ₹ 8.32 Lakhs

b. Steps taken by the Company for utilizing alternate sources of energy:

i. At Rabale R&D Centre total solar power units generated is 25,51,712 kWh which has resulted in energy savings of 9,56,937 kWh per annum amounting to annual savings of ₹ 89.49 Lakhs.

ii. At Patalganga Plant total solar power units generated is 34,48,518 kWh which has resulted in energy savings of 14,11,483 kWh per annum amounting to annual savings of ₹ 1.84 Crores.

c. The capital investment on energy conservation equipment: Approximately ₹ 3.17 Crores

B. Technology Absorption

a. Efforts made towards Technology Absorption:

i. Introduction of the "Defect Library" concept for Ophthalmic Container Closure System at Goa Plant II:

The Defect Library is a standardized quality control tool used in pharmaceuticals that catalogs common defects, their descriptions, visuals, severity levels, and acceptance criteria to enable consistent visual inspection and prevention or arresting defects at early stage of incoming inspection of packaging system.

A Defect Library typically classifies defects by severity (critical, major, minor), provides detailed descriptions (e.g. crack length > 1mm), includes high-resolution images or illustrations, and defines AQL sampling plans for inspection. Defect Library is essential to component manufacturer as well, often drawn from real production failures or simulated examples, to train operators or inspectors, to segregate the component defects while production of components and ensures the defect free supplies of packaging systems.

ii. Introduction of "TAAPI Size Estimation Chart" to measure the defect size during visual inspection at Goa Plant II:

The TAPPI Size Estimation Chart (often abbreviated as TAAPI chart) is a standardized transparent tool for visually estimating defect sizes during inspections. It aligns perfectly with pharmaceutical packaging quality control needs, like spotting inclusions or flaws in films, foils, or molded components.

This flexible, flat transparency (about 9x14 cm) features printed black dots and rectangles representing known areas from 0.02 to 5.00 mm^2. Inspectors overlay it directly on defects - such as spots, specks, or imperfections - for quick, direct visual comparison. It's governed by TAPPI Test Method T 564, ensuring consistent, reproducible results across operators.

iii. Simplification homogenization process in Oral suspension formulations:

The Oral suspension formulations are having criticality to achieve required particle size within minimum cycles of homogenization by IKA homogenizer at manufacturing plant scale.

Mebeverine oral suspension and Perampanel oral suspension, both suspensions dosage form was executed at plant scale with required particle size by IKA homogenizer.

iv. Scalability beyond 10 X batch size:

In pharmaceutical manufacturing, scaling batch sizes beyond 10 times (known as the 10X rule or Level 1 SUPAC limit) is important (especially for the products having high market volumes) to reduce the number of batches and improve the cost effectiveness. Hence, batch size of such products need to increase manufacturing scale as much as possible to reduce the number of batches as cost effective approach. This requires enhanced regulatory submissions, stability data, and validation to ensure product quality, safety, and efficacy remain unchanged.

v. Improved flowability in Sterile gel formulation:

Sterile gel formulation having criticality of flowability during travel through pipelines in plant scale manufacturing batches, as gel becomes solidify due to temperature drop during travel.

Ophthalmic gel formulation faced technical challenges of flowability during traveling through pipelines from bulk manufacturing to filling line.

vi. Ophthalmic suspension formulation:

A sterile Otic suspension was developed using bead mill technology to achieve the desired particle size of around D(50): around 1 micron and D(90): around 3 micron.

Critical parameter for Optimization is Particle size.

vii. Rejuvenation of Brand: Febrex Plus Tablets (Enhanced Clinical Efficacy)

Febrex Plus Tablets, an established commercial product, reformulated to achieve differentiation through an improved onset of action compared to competitor brands in the market. This objective was accomplished by incorporating specialized excipients and optimizing their concentrations to enable rapid disintegration.

The formulation was successfully converted into a fast-disintegrating tablet and evaluated clinically using scintigraphy studies in human subjects. The modified formulation demonstrated significantly faster disintegration and enhanced drug release, leading to a quicker onset of therapeutic action.

Furthermore, clinical studies confirmed that the reformulated product is superior in terms of overall therapeutic efficacy compared to the existing formulation. This strategic rejuvenation strengthens the brand's market positioning and enhances patient benefit.

viii. Rebuilding of Brand: Cyclopam Tablets (Improved Disintegration Profile)

Cyclopam Tablet was reformulated with the objective of achieving faster disintegration compared to competitor brands in the market. Suitable excipients were identified, and their concentrations were systematically optimized to enhance the disintegration performance.

The product was redesigned as a fast-disintegrating tablet and evaluated through scintigraphy studies in human subjects. The results demonstrated improved disintegration and faster drug release characteristics.

This enhancement is expected to provide a faster onset of action, thereby improving therapeutic effectiveness. The reformulated product supports brand rebuilding by strengthening its competitive advantage and improving patient outcomes.

b. The benefits derived like product improvement, cost reduction, product development or import substitution;

i. Simplification homogenization process in Oral suspension formulations:

With use of advanced technology of IKA homogenizer followings technical changes performed:

1. Optimized screen size/type/sequence for effective homogenization purpose.
2. Reducer technology used at outlet of IKA homogenizer to restrict the flow of suspension through homogenizer, consequently, increase in residence time of suspension in homogenizer, leads to effective homogenization process.

With implementation of above mentioned technical changes, the required particle size was achieved with minimum cycles of homogenization, leads to cost effective formulation.

ii. Scalability beyond 10 X batch size helped in reducing significant testing costs:

The scalability factor is applied for products Glimepiride Tablets & Allopurinol Tablets. Glimepiride Tablet, immediate release with low dose formulation are successfully scaled up from 30.00 L commercial batch size to 90.00 L batch size with utilization of scientific scale up tools.

Table 1: Summary of scalability of Glimepiride Tablet

Existing commercial scale batch size	Increased commercial batch size	Effective mixing optimized by scientific tool
30 L/1750 L blender	90 L/ 4500 L	Scale up factor by Tip speed calculation successfully implemented.

Allopurinol Tablets, with utilization of high speed gun (HS gun) for top spray granulation of Glatt technology, successfully scaled beyond 10X batch size with reduced manufacturing process time.

Table 2: Summary of scalability of Allopurinol Tablet

Existing commercial scale batch size	Increased commercial batch size	Top spray granulation process parameters optimized by scientific tool	Spray gun
36 L/700 L FBP (Top spray granulation)	1.20 Cr/ 1300 L FBP	Scientific scale up factor successfully implemented.	High speed (HS gun) support for increase in spray rate with finer droplets

iii. Ophthalmic suspension formulation:

The drug formulation Cipro+Dex Otic suspension was developed using bead mill technology from WAB Technologies as achieving particle size around 3 micron using existing technology of High pressure homogenization from Gea Limited (Panda) is not feasible. Hence new technology absorption was done to develop a bioequivalent product for US Market.

WHO-cGMP (all principles). Schedule M (Drugs & Cosmetics Act), ICH guidelines. Indoco's Patalganga (Rasayani) API manufacturing site was awarded a Bronze Medal in the EcoVadis Sustainability Rating (Overall Score: 64/100, 67th percentile; rated Environment 60/100, Labour & Human Rights 65/100, Ethics 69/100, Sustainable Procurement 60/100; published March 2026).
5. Specific commitments, goals and targets set by the entity with defined timelines, if any.	Environmental Impact (Target against Financial Year 2025-2026 baseline): • Reduce freshwater withdrawal by 3%. • Reduce energy consumption by 3%. • Reduce Scope 1 & 2 GHG emissions by 3%. Social & Human Capital: • Achieve zero workplace incidents and continuously improve safety performance. • Maintain zero human rights violations. • Maintain zero tolerance for child labour. Corporate Governance: • Sustain zero incidents of data breaches, corruption, and bribery.
6. Performance of the entity against the specific commitments, goals and targets along-with reasons in case the same are not met.	During Financial Year 2025-2026, the Company officially established its 2030 strategic ESG targets, setting the current reporting period as the baseline year for our environmental reduction goals (freshwater withdrawal, energy consumption, and carbon emission). Simultaneously, we formalized our operational standards for our zero-tolerance policies regarding safety incidents, human rights violations, child labour, data breaches, corruption, and bribery. Because these targets were initiated in the current financial year, Financial Year 2025-2026 serves strictly as our baseline for measurement. We are currently implementing the necessary operational frameworks and data tracking mechanisms to drive these initiatives. Quantitative performance, progress against the baseline, and target evaluations will be published in the next annual reporting cycle.

Governance, leadership and oversight
7. Statement by the director responsible for the business responsibility report, highlighting ESG-related challenges, targets and achievements (listed entity has flexibility regarding the placement of this disclosure)	Our world is undergoing a profound transformation. Climate challenges, tightening regulations, and shifting stakeholder expectations demand not just compliance, but conviction. At Indoco, we are meeting this moment by embedding sustainability into how we manufacture, how we govern, and how we grow. Growth, for us, must never come at the cost of our planet or our people. This has been a year of visible progress, and of honest reckoning. The most significant shift has been in our energy mix. Renewable sources now account for 43.5% of our total energy consumption, up from 23.9% in the previous year, driven by the introduction of briquettes as boiler fuel at selected sites and a decisive move away from carbon-intensive alternatives. This has translated directly into results: our Scope 1 emissions fell by 18.6%, and our combined Scope 1 and Scope 2 footprint declined by 8.8% even as production volumes rose. Water stewardship advanced on every front. Total water withdrawal reduced by 16.7%, from 4,07,900 to 3,39,737 kilolitres. The commissioning of a state-of-the-art Reverse Osmosis plant at our Patalganga site has materially expanded our wastewater treatment capacity, enabling the recycling of treated effluent and reducing our dependence on freshwater. Patalganga and our R&D Centre at Rabale now operate partial Zero Liquid Discharge systems. At another key facility, replacing water and steam ejectors with Dry Vacuum Pumps has delivered concurrent savings in electricity, water and emissions. Our digitalisation programme - TrackWise, SAP, DMS, LMS and digital signature solutions - has strengthened transparency and compliance while measurably reducing paper consumption across batch records and training documentation. We are also deploying intelligent platforms to monitor workforce safety and manage risk proactively. External validation followed. In March 2026, our Patalganga API manufacturing site was awarded a Bronze Medal in the EcoVadis Sustainability Rating, scoring 64 out of 100 and placing in the 67th percentile globally - an independent benchmark of our progress across environment, labour and human rights, ethics, and sustainable procurement. On our people, we recorded zero fatalities and zero high-consequence work-related injuries, alongside zero complaints relating to sexual harassment, child labour, forced labour, discrimination or wages. Provident Fund and Gratuity coverage stood at 100% for both employees and workers. I must equally be candid about where we have further to travel. Rising production volumes drove our absolute energy consumption up by 27.1% and our Scope 1 and 2 emissions by 20.2% - a reminder that efficiency gains alone will not decouple our growth from our footprint, and that the harder structural work lies ahead. Our sustainable sourcing framework is in its early stages: Our Supplier Code of Conduct now extends to our principal value chain partners, and building this into a structured programme of assessment and capability - building across the wider supplier base is work that lies before us. Our disclosures this year have not been externally assured. Each of these is a priority for the year ahead. To hold ourselves accountable, we have adopted the Indoco 2030 Strategic Targets, measured against a Financial Year 2025-2026 baseline: • Environmental Impact - reduce freshwater withdrawal by 3%; reduce energy consumption by 3%; reduce Scope 1 and Scope 2 GHG emissions by 3%. • Social & Human Capital - achieve zero workplace incidents and continuously improve safety performance; maintain zero human rights violations; maintain zero tolerance for child labour. • Corporate Governance - sustain zero incidents of data breaches, corruption and bribery. Detailed implementation plans and investment requirements for these targets are being finalised and will be reported from Financial Year 2026-2027. Sustainability at Indoco is not a parallel agenda. It is how we intend to remain a trusted manufacturer of medicines for the decades ahead.

2. a. Does the entity have procedures in place for sustainable sourcing? (Yes/No)

Yes, Indoco has adopted a Supplier Code of Conduct incorporating environmental, social and governance parameters, including water consumption, adverse environmental impacts, child labour, bonded labour, anti-bribery and anti-corruption, and data privacy. The Code forms the baseline of our sustainable sourcing approach and is being rolled out across our supplier base.

We have identified the listed value chain partners in our direct material and Active Pharmaceutical Ingredient supply base that publish Business Responsibility and Sustainability Reports in the public domain as the initial cohort for engagement under the Code. A structured sustainable sourcing mechanism - encompassing vendor engagement, capacity building and formal sustainability assessments - is currently under implementation and will be extended progressively across the supplier base.

3. Describe the processes in place to safely reclaim your products for reusing, recycling and disposing at the end of life, for (a) Plastics (including packaging) (b) E-waste (c) Hazardous waste and (d) other waste.

Plastics (including packaging):

To promote reuse and minimize packaging waste, factory cartons are reused in the following manner:

- Standard case lots of sales materials are dispatched to CFA locations using reusable factory cartons.
- Loose cartons are retained and utilized during the repacking of sample consignments.
- Central Warehouse (CWH) uses these loose cases for repacking sample materials and forwards them to CFAs for repacking of sales consignments to stockists.

This reuse process helps in reducing shipper costs.

We have established appropriate waste management systems across all our facilities. Our waste disposal processes adhere to local regulations and prioritize minimizing the amount of waste sent to landfills.

Waste Type	Waste management procedure in place
Plastic (including packaging)	Sent to authorized recyclers
E-waste	Sold to authorized recyclers for safe disposal
Hazardous Waste	Sent to authorized recyclers/Pre-processor for co-processing or to the TSDF (Treatment, Storage, and Disposal Facilities) site
Other Waste	Sent to authorized recyclers

Note: Indoco follows a structured process to minimize the risk of contamination to pharmaceutical products and to protect the environment. This process aligns with Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP), regulatory requirements, and Safety, Health, and Environmental (SHE) guidelines.

i. Effluent Treatment

- All Indoco manufacturing sites operate an Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP) to treat effluents generated during manufacturing and testing.
- Treated effluents are disposed of strictly in compliance with national and international environmental, health, and safety regulations.

ii. Waste Collection and Storage

- All waste is properly labeled and promptly destroyed to avoid cross-contamination.
- Waste is not allowed to accumulate inside production areas.
- Collected waste is placed in designated, suitable receptacles and transferred to external collection points.

iii. Waste Disposal and Destruction

- Pharmaceutical waste is destroyed under the supervision of a designated responsible person.
- Critical waste, such as printed packaging material, is destroyed by tearing, shredding, or drilling.
- At contract manufacturing sites, destruction is carried out in the presence of an Indoco representative.
- Preferred destruction method is incineration, wherever applicable.
- Deblistered strips and packaging materials are marked as scrap and destroyed by shredding.
- Laboratory waste is treated as per approved procedures before disposal.

iv. Supplier Waste Compliance

- Suppliers of printed packaging materials (e.g., leaflets, labels, cartons) are required to destroy waste material at their locations following Indoco's waste disposal guidelines.

Indoco's waste management strategy is built on the 3R principle-Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle. We systematically track all waste streams, including hazardous, non-hazardous, biomedical and e-waste, ensuring their recycling or safe disposal through authorized third parties in compliance with government regulations.

Across our value chain, we have implemented efficient waste management practices while promoting circularity. Our focus remains on maximizing recycling and minimizing the volume of waste sent to landfills and incineration. Currently, incinerable hazardous waste is routed to pre-processing facilities approved by government for responsible handling.

In line with our Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) commitments, we also collect and recycle an equivalent quantity of post-consumer plastic waste generated from our products in India, ensuring full compliance with EPR mandates.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Indian Pharmaceutical Industry

The Indian pharmaceutical industry continued to consolidate its position as one of the fastest-growing and most strategically important sectors of the Indian economy during FY 2025–26. Supported by favourable demographics, rising healthcare expenditure, increasing prevalence of chronic diseases, robust policy support and a rapidly evolving innovation ecosystem, the industry demonstrated strong resilience despite persistent global macroeconomic and geopolitical uncertainties. Today, India is recognised as the Pharmacy of the World, supplying affordable and high-quality medicines to over 200 countries while maintaining its leadership in generic pharmaceuticals and vaccines. The country is the third-largest pharmaceutical producer globally by volume and among the top producers by value, accounting for nearly 20% of global generic medicine exports and supplying a significant share of the world's vaccines and essential medicines. India's globally competitive manufacturing base, large pool of scientific talent, strong regulatory capabilities and cost-efficient production ecosystem continue to strengthen its strategic importance within global healthcare supply chains.

The Indian Pharmaceutical Market (IPM) maintained its growth trajectory during FY2025-26, expanding to ₹2.57 lakh crore from ₹2.33 lakh crore in FY2024-25 (IQVIA DATA), registering a healthy 9.9% YOY growth while delivering a four-year CAGR of approximately 8.4%. The industry continues to outperform several other manufacturing sectors, supported by structural rather than cyclical growth drivers.

Unlike previous growth cycles that were largely volume-driven, the pharmaceutical industry is increasingly witnessing a transition towards value-led expansion. Demand is progressively shifting from acute therapies towards chronic disease management, speciality pharmaceuticals, biologics, biosimilars and complex formulations. Simultaneously, increasing healthcare awareness, wider health insurance coverage, digital healthcare adoption and greater accessibility to quality healthcare across Tier II and Tier III cities are expanding the addressable market. The industry is also experiencing a structural transformation driven by technology. artificial intelligence, machine learning, advanced analytics and automation are increasingly being integrated across the pharmaceutical value chain-from drug discovery and clinical trial optimisation to manufacturing, quality assurance, and pharmacovigilance and supply chain management.

These technological advancements are expected to significantly improve productivity, reduce development timelines and enhance operational efficiencies over the coming years. India's emergence as a preferred alternative manufacturing destination under the global China Plus One sourcing strategy continues to strengthen its position within international pharmaceutical supply chains. Global pharmaceutical companies are increasingly diversifying sourcing and manufacturing operations, creating significant opportunities for Indian manufacturers across Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs), complex formulations, biologics and Contract Development and Manufacturing Organisation (CDMO) services

Industry Highlights

The Indian pharmaceutical market recorded broad-based growth across most major therapy segments during MAT March 2026, reflecting both improving healthcare access and changing disease patterns.

Government Initiatives

The Government of India continues to strengthen the pharmaceutical ecosystem through targeted policy initiatives focused on manufacturing competitiveness, healthcare accessibility and innovation.

Major initiatives include:

- Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme encouraging domestic manufacturing of high-value pharmaceutical products and advanced drug formulations.
- PLI Scheme for Bulk Drugs and establishment of Bulk Drug Parks, aimed at reducing import dependence for critical APIs and strengthening supply chain resilience.
- Medical Device Parks Scheme, promoting domestic manufacturing and reducing import dependency for medical technologies.
- Ayushman Bharat, the world's largest publicly funded health assurance programme, significantly improving healthcare accessibility.
- Pradhan Mantri Bhartiya Janaushadhi Pariyojana (PMBJP), expanding access to affordable quality generic medicines across the country.
- Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission, enabling integrated digital health records and technology-enabled healthcare delivery.
- Continued focus on strengthening domestic R&D capabilities, biotechnology innovation, vaccine research and pharmaceutical infrastructure.

These initiatives are expected to significantly improve India's global competitiveness while encouraging innovation, self-reliance and long-term investment.

Strengths

Global Manufacturing Dominance: India is the largest provider of generic drugs globally and supplies over 60% of the world's vaccine demand.

Massive Cost Advantage: Production costs in India remain 33–40% lower than in Western nations, supported by highly efficient process chemistry and a vast pool of skilled, English-speaking scientists.

Highest Number of USFDA Plants: Outside the United States, India hosts the largest number of USFDA-compliant manufacturing facilities, ensuring structural readiness for heavily regulated export markets.

Weakness

Heavy Raw Material Dependence: Despite domestic efforts, Indian drugmakers still rely on China for nearly 60–70% of their Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs) and Key Starting Materials (KSMs), leaving the supply chain vulnerable to external shocks.

Low Innovation Capital: Indian firms historically spend about 7–8% of their revenues on R&D, compared to the 15–25% standard for global blockbuster drug innovators. The market remains deeply rooted in process innovation rather than novel molecule discovery.

Fragmented Domestic Market: The domestic space is intensely fragmented with thousands of small to medium enterprises. This fragmentation triggers severe price competition, lowering profit margins in the value tier

Opportunities

The Biosimilars & Biologics Wave: Biologics are growing at a rapid CAGR of nearly 16%. With massive global patent expires on major biologics hitting over the next few years, Indian biopharma companies have a massive window to capture the complex biosimilar space.

Government Policy Tailwinds: Schemes like the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) for Bulk Drugs and the newly launched Biopharma SHAKTI initiative ($1.2 billion outlay) are aggressively funding R&D, clinical infrastructure, and API self-reliance.

Expanding Healthcare Access: Driven by rising disposable incomes and schemes like Ayushman Bharat, local health insurance coverage has climbed past 40% in both rural and urban areas. This has unlocked massive structural domestic demand for primary and chronic care therapies.

Threats

Stringent Price Controls: The National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority (NPPA) closely regulates essential medicine prices in India. Expanding price control caps directly impact profit margins on domestic product portfolios.

Tightening Global Quality Standards: Overseas regulatory bodies (like the USFDA and EDQM) are continuously raising compliance bars. Recent structural upgrades in India like the mandatory implementation of the revised Schedule M guidelines aim to fix this, but compliance costs can strain smaller players.

Geo-Political and Trade Vulnerabilities: Trade disputes, fluctuating freight dynamics, and rising protectionist policies in Western economies present persistent risks to India's $30+ billion export engine.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Management and those charged with governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place with reference to standalone financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone Ind AS financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ANNEXURE - "B"
to the Independent Auditors' Report

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report to the Members of Indoco Remedies Limited of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of subsection 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act")

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements of INDOCO REMEDIES LIMITED (the "Company") as of March 31, 2026 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the criteria for internal financial control over financial reporting established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Managements' Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness.

Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting with reference to standalone financial statements

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;

2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and

3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting with reference to financial statements.

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

1. Material Accounting Policies followed by the Company

a) Basis of Preparation

(i) Compliance with Ind AS

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (hereinafter referred to as the 'Ind AS') as notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') read with of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended and other relevant provisions of the Act.

These standalone financial statements were authorised for issue by the Company's Board of Directors on May 07, 2026.

(ii) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following:

- Certain financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value;
- Defined benefit plans - Plan assets measured at fair value;
- Assets held for sale – measured at fair value less cost to sell;

(iii) Current non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle (twelve months) and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Act.

(iv) Rounding of amounts

All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest lakhs as per the requirement of Schedule III, unless otherwise stated.

b) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements requires management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported assets and liabilities, revenue and expenses and disclosures relating to contingent liabilities. Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Management at each reporting date reviews estimates and underlying assumptions. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revision of these estimates is recognised prospectively in the current and future periods.

Following are the critical judgements and estimates:

Critical judgments:

a. Taxes on Income:

Significant judgements are involved in determining the provision for income taxes including judgement on whether tax positions are probable of being sustained in tax assessments. A tax assessment can involve complex issues, which can only be resolved over extended time periods.

The recognition of taxes that are subject to certain legal or economic limits or uncertainties is assessed individually by management based on the specific facts and circumstances.

b. Employee benefits:

Significant judgments are involved in making estimates about the life expectancy discounting rate, salary increase, etc. which significantly affect the working of the present value of the future liabilities on account of the employee benefits by way of defined benefit plans.

c. Product warranty and expiry claims:

Significant judgments are involved in determining the estimated stock lying in the market with product shelf life and estimates of likely claims on account of expiry of such unsold goods lying with stockists.

d. Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Significant judgment is involved in determining the estimated future cash flows from Property, Plant and Equipment to determine their value in use to assess whether there is any impairment in their carrying amounts as reflected in the financials.

e. Contingent liabilities:

Significant judgment is involved in determining whether there is a possible obligation that may, but probably will not require an outflow of resources.

Critical estimates:

a. Property, Plant and Equipment:

Property, Plant and Equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Group. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. Management reviews the residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment at the end of each reporting period and any revision to these is recognised prospectively in current and future periods. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology.

b. Sales Return

The Company accounts for sales returns accrual by recording an allowance for sales returns concurrent with the recognition of revenue at the time of a product sale. This allowance is based on the Company's estimate of expected sales returns. Accordingly, the estimate of sales returns is determined primarily by the Company's historical experience in the markets in which the Company operates.

c. Segment Reporting

The Company has only one business segment i.e Pharmaceutical Products.

d. Foreign Currency Translation

i. Functional and presentation currency

The Financial Statements are presented in Indian rupees (INR) which is the functional and presentation currency.

ii. Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of Profit and Loss on a net basis within other gains / (losses).

e. Revenue Recognition

The company derives major portion of its revenue from manufacturing and marketing of Formulations (Finished Dosage Forms) and Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs). Other sources of revenue include Dossiers development, Analytical Studies and Bio-equivalent studies undertaken by the company on behalf of customers.

With effect from April 1, 2018, the company has adopted Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The company analysed the impact of Ind AS on incomplete contracts, if any and concluded that the effect of adoption of Ind AS 115 was insignificant.

Recognising revenue from major business activities

i. Sale of goods – FDF and API

Revenue from sale of FDF and API are recognised when the performance obligations are satisfied in accordance with Ind AS 115. Performance obligations are deemed to have been satisfied when substantial risk and rewards of ownership are transferred to the customer and the customer obtains control of the promised goods. In case of domestic sales, performance obligations are satisfied when goods are dispatched, or delivery is handed over to the transporter. In case of export sales, performance obligations are satisfied based on terms defined in the contracts. In case of Ex-works contracts, performance obligation is satisfied when goods are shipped or dispatched from the factory and in other cases when the goods are shipped on board based on Bill of Lading / Airway Bill or any other similar document evidencing delivery thereof.

ii. Revenue from services

Services provided include Dossiers development, Analytical Studies and Bio- equivalent studies undertaken by the company on behalf of customers.

The contracts with customers for Dossiers and study reports are fixed-price contracts. Revenue from such contracts, where the performance obligations are satisfied over time and where there is no significant uncertainty as to measurement or collectability of consideration, is recognised based on the terms agreed with the customers.

Estimates of revenues, costs or extent of progress toward completion are revised if circumstances change. The effect that the contract modification has on the transaction price, and on the entity's measure of progress towards complete satisfaction of the performance obligation, is recognised as an adjustment to revenue (either as an increase in or a reduction of revenue) at the date of the contract modification (i.e. the adjustment to revenue is made on a cumulative catch-up basis).

iii. Other operating revenue - Export incentives

Revenue from Export Incentives under various schemes is recognised when the performance obligations are satisfied i.e. when the related export sales are effected.

iv. Sales Return

The Company recognises provision for sales return, on the basis of past experience, measured on net basis of the margin of the sales. Any unutilised provision for sales return is reversed to the Statement of Profit and Loss on completion of 3 years from the date of creation.

f. Government Grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Company will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to Profit and Loss on a straight - line basis over the expected lives of related assets and presented within other income.

g. Income Tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statement. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are excepted to apply when the related deferred income tax assets is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses, only if, it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

h. Business Combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the

- fair values of the assets transferred;
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business;
- equity interests issued by the Company; and
- Fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Company recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the

- consideration transferred;
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve provided there is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase. In other cases, the bargain purchase gain is recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

i. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the balance sheet.

j. Cash Flow Statements

Cash flows are prepared using the indirect method, whereby net profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flow from operating, investing and financing activities of company are segregated.

k. Inventories

Inventories of Raw Materials, Work-in-Progress, Stores and Spares, Finished Goods and Stock-in-trade are stated 'at cost or net realisable value, whichever is lower'. Goods-in-Transit are stated 'at cost'. Cost comprises all costs of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost formulas used are 'Weighted Average Cost'. Due allowance is estimated and made for defective and obsolete items, wherever necessary.

l. Non-Current Assets held for Sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets and contractual rights under insurance contracts, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

Non-current assets are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Interest and other expenses attributable to the liabilities of a disposal Company classified as held for sale continue to be recognised.

m. Derivatives and Hedging Activities

Derivative financial instruments such as forward contracts, option contracts and cross currency swaps, to hedge its foreign currency risks are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when they arise.

n. Property, Plant and Equipment

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Cost includes purchase price, non-refundable taxes, levies, and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Transition to Ind AS

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at April 1, 2015 measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of certain leased furniture, fittings and equipment, the shorter lease term as follows:

Asset Class	Useful Life
Building and Premises – Office	60 years
Building and Premises – Factory	30 years
Plant and Machinery	15 years
Handling Equipment	15 years
Pollution Control Equipment	10 years
Laboratory Equipment	10 years
R & D Equipment	10 years
Plant Utilities	15 years
Electric Installation	10 years
Furniture and Fixtures	10 years
Office Equipment	5 years
Computers - Desktops, Laptop etc.	3 years
Computers - Servers and Networks	6 years
Networking Instrument	6 years
Air Conditioning Unit	15 years
Vehicles	8 years
Trade Mark	15 years
Technical Know How	10 years

The management believes that useful lives currently used is as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, fairly reflects its estimate of the useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment. The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss within other gains/(losses).

o. Intangible Assets

i. Computer Software

Costs associated with maintaining software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Company are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met:

- It is technically feasible to complete the software so that it will be available for use
- Management intends to complete the software and use it
- There is an ability to use the software
- It can be demonstrated how the software will generate probable future economic benefits

- Adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use the software are available, and
- The expenditure attributable to the software during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalized as part of the software include employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads.

Capitalised development costs are recorded as intangible assets and amortised from the point at which the asset is available for use.

ii. ANDA / DMFs / Dossiers

All revenue expenditure incurred till the development of ANDAs / DMFs / Dossiers etc. are grouped under intangible assets under development. Once the development is complete, the expenditures incurred on the said project is capitalised & grouped under "Intangible Assets" and amortised based on best estimated commercial revenue period, not exceeding 5 years. The carrying value of the capitalised project is reviewed for impairment annually.

iii. Amortisation methods and periods

The Company amortises intangible assets with a finite useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Asset Class	Useful Life
Trade Mark/ Technical Knowhow	15 years
Technical Knowhow	10 years
Computer software	3 years
ANDA / DMF	5 years

p. Research and Development Expenditure

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development expenditures on an individual project are recognised as an intangible asset when the Company can demonstrate:

- development costs can be measured reliably;
- the product or process is technically and commercially feasible;
- future economic benefits are probable; and
- the company intends to, and has sufficient resources to complete development and to use or sell the asset.

Following initial recognition of the development expenditure as an asset, the asset is carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation of the asset begins when development is complete and the asset is available for use. It is amortised over the period of expected future benefit. Amortisation expense is recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless such expenditure forms part of carrying value of another asset. During the period of development, the asset is tested for impairment annually.

q. Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at net of transaction costs incurred and measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

r. Borrowing Costs

Interest and other borrowing costs attributable to qualifying assets are capitalised. Other interest and borrowing costs are charged to Statement of Profit and Loss.

s. Provisions

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

t. Financial Instruments:

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

A. Financial Assets:

a. Initial recognition and measurement: All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value. Transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset which are not at Fair Value Through Profit and Loss Account are adjusted to fair value on initial recognition. Purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised on the settlement date i.e. the date that the Company settles to purchase or sell the asset.

b. Subsequent measurement: For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

i. Financial Assets measured at amortised cost:

A "financial asset" is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held with an objective of collecting contractual cash flows.
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are "solely payments of principal and interest" [SPPI] on the principal amount outstanding. After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate [EIR] method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in finance income in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss.

ii. Financial Assets at fair value through other comprehensive income [FVTOCI]:

A 'financial asset' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- The asset is held with objective of both for collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets.
- The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Financial Assets included within the FVTOCI category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognized in the OCI. However, the Company recognizes interest income, impairment losses & reversals and foreign exchange gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss. On derecognition of the asset, cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from the equity to Statement of Profit and Loss. Interest earned whilst holding FVTOCI debt instrument is reported as interest income using the EIR method.

iii. Financial Assets at fair value through profit or loss [FVTPL]:

Financial assets, which are not classified in any of the above categories are measured at FVTPL.

iv. Equity instruments:

All equity investments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Company may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value in other comprehensive income. The Company has made such election on an instrument by instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the Company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to Statement of Profit and Loss, even on sale of investment.

However, the Company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

v. Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures:

Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Upon first-time adoption of Ind AS, the Company has elected to measure its investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures at the Previous GAAP carrying amount as its deemed cost on the date of transition to Ind AS i.e., April 1, 2015.

c. Derecognition:

A financial asset [or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset] is primarily derecognised [i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet] when:

i. The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

ii. The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement and either,

[a] the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or

[b] the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Company continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement. In that case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained. When the Company has transferred the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the same is derecognised.

d. Impairment of financial assets:

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Company applies expected credit loss [ECL] model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

i. Financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortised cost.

ii. Trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset.

iii. Financial assets that are debt instruments and are measured as at FVTOCI. The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on Point b above.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it requires the Company to recognise the impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the Company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If, in a subsequent period, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

Lifetime ECL are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The 12-month ECL is a portion of the lifetime ECL which results from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Company in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive [i.e., all cash shortfalls], discounted at the original EIR. ECL impairment loss allowance [or reversal] is recognized as expense/ income in the Statement of profit and loss. The balance sheet presentation for various financial instruments is described below:

Financial assets measured as at amortised cost and contractual revenue receivables: ECL is presented as an allowance, i.e., as an integral part of the measurement of those assets in the balance sheet, which reduces the net carrying amount. Until the asset meets write-off criteria, the Company does not reduce impairment allowance from the gross carrying amount. For assessing increase in credit risk and impairment loss, the Company combines financial instruments on the basis of shared credit risk characteristics.

B. Financial Liabilities:

a. Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial liabilities are recognised at fair value and in case of borrowings, net of directly attributable cost. Fees of recurring nature are directly recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as finance cost.

b. Subsequent measurement:

Subsequently all financial liabilities are measured as amortised cost, using EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in Statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Statement of profit and loss.

c. Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss.

d. Embedded derivatives:

An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid [combined] instrument that also includes a non-derivative host contract – with the effect that some of the cash flows of the combined instrument vary in a way similar to a standalone derivative. Derivatives embedded in all other host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated at fair value though profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in Statement of profit and loss, unless designated as effective hedging instruments.

C. Offsetting of financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

D. Derivative financial instruments:

Cashflow Hedge

The Company designates eligible derivative financial instruments as cash flow hedges to hedge exposure to variability in cash flows associated with highly probable forecast transactions or recognised assets and liabilities attributable to particular risks. Derivative financial instruments designated as cash flow hedges are measured at fair value at each reporting date.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of the designated call spread instruments is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) and accumulated in equity under the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve. Any ineffective portion of the hedge relationship is recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Amounts accumulated in the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve are reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the periods in which the hedged foreign currency cash flows relating to the ECB affect profit or loss and are presented in the same line item as the hedged exposure.

When the hedging instrument expires, is sold, terminated, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve remains in equity until the occurrence of the forecast hedged cash flows. If the forecast hedged cash flows are no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in equity is immediately reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

u. Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either :

a. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or

b. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

a) Level 1 — Quoted [unadjusted] market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

b) Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

c) Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable for assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation [based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole] at the end of each reporting period.

v. Employee Benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

(ii) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

The liabilities for earned leave and sick leave that are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months are measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the Government Securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Re-measurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(iii) Post-employment obligations

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

(a) Defined benefit plans such as gratuity.

(b) Defined contribution plans such as provident fund and Superannuation.

Gratuity obligations

The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Re-measurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet.

Defined Contribution Plans

Defined Contribution Plans such as Provident Fund, Superannuation etc., are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred.

w. Contributed Equity

Equity shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

i. Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- The profit attributable to owners of the Company.
- By the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

ii. Dividends to shareholders

Annual dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the period in which the dividends are approved by shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by the board of directors. Dividend payable and corresponding tax on dividend distribution is recognised directly in equity.

x. Contingent Liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognised.

y. Leases

The Company has adopted IND AS 116, "Leases", effective April 1, 2019, using modified retrospective approach.

The Company, as a lessee, recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for its leasing arrangements, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset. The cost of the right-of-use asset shall comprise of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date plus any initial direct costs incurred. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset.

The Company measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Company uses incremental borrowing rate. For short term and low value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the lease term.

z. Equity settled share-based payments

Equity-settled share based payments to employees are measured at the fair value (i.e. excess of fair value over the exercise price of the option) of the Employee Stock Options Plan at the grant date. The fair value of option at the grant date is calculated by Black-Scholes model. In case the options are granted to employees of the Company, the fair value determined at the grant date is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Company's estimate of options that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected in determining the diluted earnings per share.

NOTE 2: Use of Estimates and Judgments

The estimates and judgments used in the preparation of the financial statements are continuously evaluated by the Company and are based on historical experience and various other assumptions and factors (including expectations of future events) that the Company believes to be reasonable under the existing circumstances. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known/materialised.

The said estimates are based on the facts and events, that existed as at the reporting date, or that occurred after that date but provide additional evidence about conditions existing as at the reporting date.

(iv) Post-Employment benefits (gratuity)

Significant estimates: actuarial assumptions and sensitivity

The significant actuarial assumptions were as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Discount rate	7.24%	6.73%
Attrition rate	For service 4 years and below 20.00% p.a. For service 5 years and above 4.00% p.a.	For service 4 years and below 20.00% p.a. For service 5 years and above 4.00% p.a.
Salary growth rate	5.00%	5.00%
Retirement Age	58 Years	58 & 62 years

(v) Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to changes in the weighted principal assumptions is:

Particulars	Change in assumption		Increase in assumption		Decrease in assumption
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Discount rate	0.01	0.01	–	–	297.20	317.81
Discount rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	341.49	367.43	**–	–
Salary growth rate	0.01	0.01	329.07	357.14	**–	–
Salary growth rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	–	–	293.14	315.10
Attrition rate	0.01	0.01	47.75	37.12	**–	–
Attrition rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	–	–	54.78	43.20

The above sensitivity analysis are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit liability recognized in the balance sheet.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the prior period.

Fair value hierarchy

Level 1 : Hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. This includes listed equity instruments and mutual funds that have quoted price. The mutual funds are valued using the closing NAV.

Level 2 : The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (like forward contract) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3 : If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities etc. included in level 3.

Note 43: Fair value measurement : Contd.

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the company has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

The steering committee primarily uses a measure of adjusted earnings before other income, finance cost, tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA, see below) to assess the performance of the operating segments. However, the steering committee also receives information about the segment's revenue and assets on a monthly basis.

Note: 52 - FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Company's financial risk management is an integral part of how to plan and execute its business strategies. The Company's financial risk management policy is set by the Audit Committee of the Board of Director.

Market risk is the risk of loss of future earnings, fair values or future cash flows that may result from a change in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in the interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, equity prices and other market changes that affect market risk sensitive instruments. Market risk is attributable to all market risk sensitive financial instruments including investments and deposits, foreign currency receivables, payables and loans and borrowings.

The Company manages market risk through a Finance department, which evaluates and exercises independent control over the entire process of market risk management. The Finance department recommend the risk management objectives and policies, which are approved by Senior Management and the Audit Committee. The activities of this department include management of cash resources, implementing hedging strategies for foreign currency exposures like foreign exchange forward contracts, borrowing strategies and ensuring compliance with market risk limits and policies.

Market Risk- Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of the financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. In order to optimize the Company's position with regards to interest income and interest expenses and to manage the interest rate risk, finance department performs a comprehensive corporate interest rate risk management policy by balancing the proportion of fixed rate and floating rate financial instruments in its total portfolio.

According to the Company interest rate risk exposure is only for floating rate borrowings. For floating rate liabilities, the analysis is prepared assuming the amount of liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period was outstanding for the whole year. 50-basis point increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the possibility that the counter party may not be able to settle their obligations as agreed. To manage this, the Company periodically assesses financial reliability of customer and other counter parties, taking into account the financial condition, current economic trends, and analysis of historical bad debts and ageing of financial assets. Individual risk limits are set and periodically reviewed on the basis of such information.

The Company consider the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis through each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Company compares the risk of default occurring on asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers reasonable and supportive forward-looking information such as:

- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business,
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the counterparty,
- Financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the counterparty's ability to meet its obligations,
- Significant increase in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same counterparty,
- Significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of the third-party guarantees or credit enhancements.

Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectations of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Company. Where loans or receivables have been written off, the Company continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognized as income in the statement of Profit and Loss.

The Company measures the expected credit loss of trade receivables and loan from individual customer based on historical trend, industry practices and the business environment in which the entity operates. Loss rates are based on actual credit loss experience and past trends. Based on the historical data, loss on collection of receivables is not material hence no additional provision considered.

Independent Auditors' Report (Consolidated) to the Members of Indoco Remedies Limited

Report on the Audit of Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of INDOCO REMEDIES LIMITED ("the Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2026, and the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Consolidated Cash Flow Statement and the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity for the year ended and notes to the consolidated financial statements (including summary of material accounting policies) and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2026, and its consolidated Loss and consolidated total comprehensive income, its consolidated changes in equity and its consolidated cash inflows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to the Note on Non-current Financial Investment in Consolidated financial statements -

A) FPP Holding LLC

The Company incurred a net loss ₹ 2,365.21 Lakhs during the year ended March 31, 2026. As at that date, the Company has a negative networth of ₹ 4,225.11 Lakhs.

The above condition indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the respective company to continue as going concern. In accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 36, Impairment of Assets, the Group has carried out impairment testing of the carrying amounts of its investments in these subsidiaries, given the erosion of their net worth. Based on the impairment assessment performed by management, which included review of long-term business plans, cash flow forecasts, and other relevant assumptions, the recoverable amounts of these investments were estimated to exceed their respective carrying values. Accordingly, no impairment provision has been considered necessary by the management at this stage.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our audit report.

Provision for sales return amounted to ₹ 2,481.35 lakhs as on March 31, 2026 (₹ 2,262.28 lakhs as on March 31, 2025). Refer note no. 29: current provisions to the consolidated financial statements.	Principal Audit Procedures Performed We have carried out the validation of the information provided by the management by performing the following procedures: a) Validating the process consistently implemented by the management in arriving at the estimates. b) Correlating the amounts of actual sales returns with the provisions made. c) Evaluated management assessment for change in estimates for provision for sales return during this year. d) Getting representations from the management wherever necessary.
2	Intangible Assets Under Development The Group undertakes several projects for new product development. Once the development is complete as per management assessment, such items are reclassified as Intangible Assets in the books of accounts. On the basis of such assessment, the costs incurred on such projects till the time development is complete as per management assessment, are reflected in the financial statements as "Intangible assets under development". The quantum of Intangible Assets Under Development as on March 31,2026 was ₹ 6,172.25 lakhs (₹ 4,441.79 lakhs as on March 31, 2025). The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Management and those charged with governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Ind AS and accounting principles generally accepted in India. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate implementation and maintenance of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of the consolidated financial statements by the directors of the holding company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the group are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the management either intends to liquidate the companies included in group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

a) Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

b) Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under the section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company and its subsidiary companies has adequate internal financial controls system in place with reference to consolidated financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

c) Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

d) Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the group to cease to continue as a going concern.

e) Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

f) Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ANNEXURE "B"
to the Independent Auditors' Report (consolidated)

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report on consolidated Financial Statements to the Members of Indoco Remedies Limited of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of subsection 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act")

Opinion

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Indoco Remedies Limited as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements of Indoco Remedies Limited ('the Holding Company') and its subsidiary companies, as of that date.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by ICAI and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

1. pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company.
2. provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and
3. provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

1. Material Accounting Policies followed by the Group Companies

a) Basis of Preparation

(i) Compliance with Ind AS

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (hereinafter referred to as the 'Ind AS') as notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') read with of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended and other relevant provisions of the Act.

These consolidated financial statements were authorised for issue by the Company's Board of Directors on May 07, 2026.

(ii) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following:

- Certain financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value;
- Defined benefit plans - Plan assets measured at fair value;
- Assets held for sale – measured at fair value less cost to sell;

(iii) Current non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle (twelve months) and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Act.

(iv) Rounding of amounts

All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest lakhs as per the requirement of Schedule III, unless otherwise stated.

b) Principles of Consolidation:

(i) The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 110 - Consolidated Financial Statements.

(ii) The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statement of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Subsidiary Companies are all the entities over which the Group has control. Subsidiary companies are consolidated on the date on which control is transferred to the Group. The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are one or more changes to elements of control described above.

The Company exercises control if and only if it has the following :

- power over the entity;
- exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity; and
- has the ability to use its power over the entity to affect the amount of its returns.

(iii) In case of Foreign Subsidiary revenue items are consolidated at the average rate prevailing during the period. All Assets (except Fixed Assets) and liabilities are converted at the rates prevailing at the end of the year. In case of Fixed Assets the same is consolidated at the rate applicable in the year of acquisition of the said assets. Any exchange difference arising on consolidation is recognised as Translation difference in Reserves & Surplus.

(iv) Process of Consolidation

a) Combine like items of assets, liabilities, other equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the consolidated financial statements at the acquisition date.

b) Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent's investment in each subsidiary and the parent's portion of equity of each subsidiary. Business combinations policy explains how to account for any related goodwill.

c) Eliminate in full intra group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and fixed assets, are eliminated in full). Intragroup losses may indicate an impairment that requires recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Ind AS12 Income Taxes apply to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and any related non-controlling interests and other components of equity. Any interest retained in the form of subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date the control is lost. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(v) Non Controlling Interest in net profits of consolidated subsidiaries for the year is identified and adjusted against the income in order to arrive at the net income attributable to the shareholders of the Company. Their share of net assets is identified and presented in the Consolidated Balance sheet separately.

(vi) As far as possible the consolidated financial statements have been prepared using uniform Accounting Policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. Differences in Accounting Policies if any will be disclosed separately.

c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements requires management of the Group to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported assets and liabilities, revenue and expenses and disclosures relating to contingent liabilities. Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Management at each reporting date reviews estimates and underlying assumptions. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Any revision of these estimates is recognised prospectively in the current and future periods.

Following are the critical judgements and estimates:

Critical judgments:

a. Taxes on Income:

Significant judgements are involved in determining the provision for income taxes including judgement on whether tax positions are probable of being sustained in tax assessments. A tax assessment can involve complex issues, which can only be resolved over extended time periods.

The recognition of taxes that are subject to certain legal or economic limits or uncertainties is assessed individually by management based on the specific facts and circumstances.

b. Employee benefits:

Significant judgments are involved in making estimates about the life expectancy discounting rate, salary increase, etc. which significantly affect the working of the present value of the future liabilities on account of the employee benefits by way of defined benefit plans.

c. Product warranty and expiry claims:

Significant judgments are involved in determining the estimated stock lying in the market with product shelf life and estimates of likely claims on account of expiry of such unsold goods lying with stockists.

d. Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Significant judgment is involved in determining the estimated future cash flows from Property, Plant and Equipment to determine their value in use to assess whether there is any impairment in their carrying amounts as reflected in the financials.

e. Contingent liabilities:

Significant judgment is involved in determining whether there is a possible obligation that may, but probably will not require an outflow of resources.

Critical estimates:

a. Property, Plant and Equipment:

Property, Plant and Equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Group. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. Management reviews the residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment at the end of each reporting period and any revision to these is recognised prospectively in current and future periods. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology.

b. Sales Return

The Group accounts for sales returns accrual by recording an allowance for sales returns concurrent with the recognition of revenue at the time of a product sale. This allowance is based on the Group's estimate of expected sales returns. Accordingly, the estimate of sales returns is determined primarily by the Group's historical experience in the markets in which the Group operates.

c. Segment Reporting

The Company has only one business segment i.e Pharmaceutical Products.

d. Foreign Currency Translation

i. Functional and presentation currency

The Financial Statements are presented in Indian rupees (INR) which is the functional and presentation currency.

ii. Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of Profit and Loss on a net basis within other gains / (losses).

e. Revenue Recognition

The Group derives major portion of its revenue from manufacturing and marketing of Formulations (Finished Dosage Forms) and Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs). Other sources of revenue include Dossiers development, Analytical Studies and Bio-equivalent studies undertaken by the Group on behalf of customers.

With effect from April 1, 2018, the Group has adopted Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The Group analysed the impact of Ind AS on incomplete contracts, if any and concluded that the effect of adoption of Ind AS 115 was insignificant.

Recognising revenue from major business activities

i. Sale of goods – FDF and API

Revenue from sale of FDF and API are recognised when the performance obligations are satisfied in accordance with Ind AS 115. Performance obligations are deemed to have been satisfied when substantial risk and rewards of ownership are transferred to the customer and the customer obtains control of the promised goods. In case of domestic sales, performance obligations are satisfied when goods are dispatched, or delivery is handed over to the transporter. In case of export sales, performance obligations are satisfied based on terms defined in the contracts. In case of Ex-works contracts, performance obligation is satisfied when goods are shipped or dispatched from the factory and in other cases when the goods are shipped on board based on Bill of Lading / Airway Bill or any other similar document evidencing delivery thereof.

ii. Revenue from services

Services provided include Dossiers development, Analytical Studies and Bio-equivalent studies undertaken by the Group on behalf of customers.

The contracts with customers for Dossiers and study reports are fixed-price contracts. Revenue from such contracts, where the performance obligations are satisfied over time and where there is no significant uncertainty as to measurement or collectability of consideration, is recognised based on the terms agreed with the customers.

Estimates of revenues, costs or extent of progress toward completion are revised if circumstances change. The effect that the contract modification has on the transaction price, and on the entity's measure of progress towards complete satisfaction of the performance obligation, is recognised as an adjustment to revenue (either as an increase in or a reduction of revenue) at the date of the contract modification (i.e. the adjustment to revenue is made on a cumulative catch-up basis).

iii. Other Operating Revenue - Export incentives

Revenue from Export Incentives under various schemes is recognised when the performance obligations are satisfied i.e. when the related export sales are effected.

iv. Sales Return

The Group recognises provision for sales return, on the basis of past experience, measured on net basis of the margin of the sales. Any unutilised provision for sales return is reversed to the Statement of Profit and Loss on completion of 3 years from the date of creation.

f. Government Grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to Profit and Loss on a straight - line basis over the expected lives of related assets and presented within other income.

g. Income Tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statement. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are excepted to apply when the related deferred income tax assets is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses, only if, it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the Group has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

h. Business Combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the

- fair values of the assets transferred;
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business;
- equity interests issued by the Group; and
- Fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the

- consideration transferred;
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve provided there is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase. In other cases, the bargain purchase gain is recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

i. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the balance sheet.

j. Cash Flow Statements

Cash flows are prepared using the indirect method, whereby net profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flow from operating, investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

k. Inventories

Inventories of Raw Materials, Work-in-Progress, Stores and Spares, Finished Goods and Stock-in-trade are stated 'at cost or net realisable value, whichever is lower'. Goods-in-Transit are stated' at cost'. Cost comprises all cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost formulas used are–'Weighted Average Cost'. Due allowance is estimated and made for defective and obsolete items, wherever necessary.

l. Non-Current Assets held for Sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for assets such as deferred tax assets, assets arising from employee benefits, financial assets and contractual rights under insurance contracts, which are specifically exempt from this requirement.

Non-current assets are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Interest and other expenses attributable to the liabilities of a disposal Company classified as held for sale continue to be recognised.

m. Derivatives and Hedging Activities

Derivative financial instruments such as forward contracts, option contracts and cross currency swaps, to hedge its foreign currency risks are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when they arise.

n. Property, Plant and Equipment

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Cost includes purchase price, non-refundable taxes, levies, and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Transition to Ind AS

On transition to Ind AS, the Group has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at April 1, 2015 measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of certain leased furniture, fittings and equipment, the shorter lease term as follows:

Asset Class	Useful Life
Building and Premises – Office	60 years
Building and Premises – Factory	30 years
Plant and Machinery	15 years
Handling Equipment	15 years
Pollution Control Equipment	10 years
Laboratory Equipment	10 years
R & D Equipment	10 years
Plant Utilities	15 years
Electric Installation	10 years
Furniture and Fixtures	10 years
Office Equipment	5 years
Computers - Desktops, Laptop etc.	3 years
Computers - Servers and Networks	6 years
Networking Instrument	6 years
Air Conditioning Unit	15 years
Vehicles	8 years
Trade Mark	15 years
Technical Know How	10 years

The management believes that useful lives currently used is as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, fairly reflect its estimate of the useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment. The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss within other gains/(losses).

o. Intangible Assets

i. Computer Software

Costs associated with maintaining software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met:

- It is technically feasible to complete the software so that it will be available for use
- Management intends to complete the software and use it
- There is an ability to use the software
- It can be demonstrated how the software will generate probable future economic benefits

- Adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use the software are available, and
- The expenditure attributable to the software during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalized as part of the software include employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads.

Capitalised development costs are recorded as intangible assets and amortised from the point at which the asset is available for use.

ii. ANDA / DMFs / Dossiers

All revenue expenditure incurred till the development of ANDAs / DMFs / Dossiers etc. are grouped under intangible assets under development. Once the development is complete, the expenditures incurred on the said project is capitalised & grouped under "Intangible Assets" and amortised based on best estimated commercial revenue period, not exceeding 5 years. The carrying value of the capitalised project is reviewed for impairment annually.

iii. Amortisation methods and periods

The Group amortises intangible assets with a finite useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Asset Class	Useful Life
Trade Mark/ Technical Knowhow	15 years
Technical Knowhow	10 years
Computer software	3 years
ANDA / DMF	5 years

p. Research and Development Expenditure

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development expenditures on an individual project are recognised as an intangible asset when the Company can demonstrate:

- development costs can be measured reliably;
- the product or process is technically and commercially feasible;
- future economic benefits are probable; and
- the company intends to, and has sufficient resources to complete development and to use or sell the asset.

Following initial recognition of the development expenditure as an asset, the asset is carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation of the asset begins when development is complete and the asset is available for use. It is amortised over the period of expected future benefit. Amortisation expense is recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless such expenditure forms part of carrying value of another asset. During the period of development, the asset is tested for impairment annually.

q. Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at net of transaction costs incurred and measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

r. Borrowing Costs

Interest and other borrowing costs attributable to qualifying assets are capitalised. Other interest and borrowing costs are charged to Statement of Profit and Loss.

s. Provisions

A provision is recognised when the Group has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

t. Financial Instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

A. Financial Assets:

a. Initial recognition and measurement: All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value. Transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset which are not at Fair Value Through Profit and Loss Account are adjusted to fair value on initial recognition. Purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised on the settlement date i.e. the date that the Group settles to purchase or sell the asset.

b. Subsequent measurement: For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

i. Financial Assets measured at amortised cost:

A 'financial asset' is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held with an objective of collecting contractual cash flows
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are "solely payments of principal and interest" [SPPI] on the principal amount outstanding. After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate [EIR] method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in finance income in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss.

ii. Financial Assets at fair value through other comprehensive income [FVTOCI]:

A 'financial asset' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- The asset is held with objective of both for collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets
- The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Financial Assets included within the FVTOCI category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognized in the OCI. However, the Group recognizes interest income, impairment losses & reversals and foreign exchange gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss. On derecognition of the asset, cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from the equity to Statement of Profit and Loss. Interest earned whilst holding FVTOCI debt instrument is reported as interest income using the EIR method.

iii. Financial Assets at fair value through profit or loss [FVTPL]:

Financial assets, which are not classified in any of the above categories are measured at FVTPL.

iv. Equity instruments:

All equity investments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Group may make an irrevocable election to present subsequent changes in the fair value in other comprehensive income. The Group has made such election on an instrument by instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to Statement of Profit and Loss, even on sale of investment.

However, the Group may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

v. Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures:

Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Upon first-time adoption of Ind AS, the Group has elected to measure its investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures at the Previous GAAP carrying amount as its deemed cost on the date of transition to Ind AS i.e., April 1, 2015.

c. Derecognition:

A financial asset [or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset] is primarily derecognised [i.e. removed from the Group's balance sheet] when:

i. The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

ii. The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement and either

[a] the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or

[b] the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained. When the Group has transferred the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the same is derecognised.

d. Impairment of financial assets:

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Group applies expected credit loss [ECL] model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

i. Financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortised cost.

ii. Trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset.

iii. Financial assets that are debt instruments and are measured as at FVTOCI. The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on Point b above.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it requires the Group to recognise the impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition. For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the Group determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If, in a subsequent period, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

Lifetime ECL are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The 12-month ECL is a portion of the lifetime ECL which results from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive [i.e., all cash shortfalls], discounted at the original EIR. ECL impairment loss allowance [or reversal] is recognized as expense/ income in the Statement of profit and loss. The balance sheet presentation for various financial instruments is described below:

Financial assets measured as at amortised cost and contractual revenue receivables: ECL is presented as an allowance, i.e., as an integral part of the measurement of those assets in the balance sheet, which reduces the net carrying amount. Until the asset meets write-off criteria, the Group does not reduce impairment allowance from the gross carrying amount. For assessing increase in credit risk and impairment loss, the Group combines financial instruments on the basis of shared credit risk characteristics.

B. Financial Liabilities:

a. Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial liabilities are recognised at fair value and in case of borrowings, net of directly attributable cost. Fees of recurring nature are directly recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as finance cost.

b. Subsequent measurement:

Subsequently all financial liabilities are measured as amortised cost, using EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in Statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Statement of profit and loss.

c. Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss.

d. Embedded derivatives:

An embedded derivative is a component of a hybrid [combined] instrument that also includes a non-derivative host contract – with the effect that some of the cash flows of the combined instrument vary in a way similar to a standalone derivative. Derivatives embedded in all other host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated at fair value though profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in Statement of profit and loss, unless designated as effective hedging instruments.

C. Offsetting of financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

D. Derivative financial instruments:

Cashflow Hedge

The Company designates eligible derivative financial instruments as cash flow hedges to hedge exposure to variability in cash flows associated with highly probable forecast transactions or recognised assets and liabilities attributable to particular risks. Derivative financial instruments designated as cash flow hedges are measured at fair value at each reporting date.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of the designated call spread instruments is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) and accumulated in equity under the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve. Any ineffective portion of the hedge relationship is recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Amounts accumulated in the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve are reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss in the periods in which the hedged foreign currency cash flows relating to the ECB affect profit or loss and are presented in the same line item as the hedged exposure.

When the hedging instrument expires, is sold, terminated, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in the Cash Flow Hedging Reserve remains in equity until the occurrence of the forecast hedged cash flows. If the forecast hedged cash flows are no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in equity is immediately reclassified to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

u. Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either :

a. In the principal market for the asset or liability, or

b. In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use. The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

a) Level 1 — Quoted [unadjusted] market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

b) Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

c) Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation [based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole] at the end of each reporting period.

v. Employee Benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

(ii) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

The liabilities for earned leave and sick leave that are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months are measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the Government Securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Re-measurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(iii) Post-employment obligations

The Group operates the following post-employment schemes:

(a) Defined benefit plans such as gratuity.

(b) Defined contribution plans such as provident fund and Superannuation.

Gratuity obligations

The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Re-measurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet.

Defined Contribution Plans

Defined Contribution Plans such as Provident Fund, Superannuation etc., are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred.

w. Contributed Equity

Equity shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

i. Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- The profit attributable to owners of the Group
- By the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

ii. Dividends to shareholders

Annual dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the period in which the dividends are approved by shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by the board of directors. Dividend payable and corresponding tax on dividend distribution is recognised directly in equity.

x. Contingent Liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the group or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognised.

y. Leases

The Group has adopted IND AS 116, "Leases", effective April 1, 2019, using modified retrospective approach.

The Group, as a lessee, recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for its leasing arrangements, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset. The cost of the right-of-use asset shall comprise of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date plus any initial direct costs incurred. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset.

The Group measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate. For short term and low value leases, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the lease term.

z. Equity settled share-based payments

Equity-settled share based payments to employees are measured at the fair value (i.e. excess of fair value over the exercise price of the option) of the Employee Stock Options Plan at the grant date. The fair value of option at the grant date is calculated by Black-Scholes model. In case the options are granted to employees of the Company, the fair value determined at the grant date is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Company's estimate of options that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected in determining the diluted earnings per share.

NOTE 2: Use of Estimates and Judgments

The estimates and judgments used in the preparation of the financial statements are continuously evaluated by the Group and are based on historical experience and various other assumptions and factors (including expectations of future events) that the Group believes to be reasonable under the existing circumstances. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known/materialised.

The said estimates are based on the facts and events, that existed as at the reporting date, or that occurred after that date but provide additional evidence about conditions existing as at the reporting date.

As required by IND AS 19 'Employee benefits' the disclosures are as under :

(i) Defined benefit plans

a. Leave obligations

The leave obligations cover the group's liability for sick and earned leave.

The amount of the provision of INR 325.86 lakhs (March 31, 2025 – INR 292.44 lakhs) is presented as current, since the group does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for any of these obligations. However, based on past experience, the group does not expect all employees to take the full amount of accrued leave or require payment within the next 12 months and therefore provision is made on the basis of actuarial valuation obtained.

b. Post-employment obligations

i. Gratuity

The group provides for gratuity for employees in India as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Employees who are in continuous service for a period of 5 years are eligible for gratuity. The amount of gratuity payable on retirement/termination is the employees last drawn basic salary per month computed proportionately for 15 days salary multiplied for the number of years of service. The gratuity plan is a

The group also has certain defined contribution plans. Contributions are made to provident fund in India for employees at the rate of 12% of basic salary as per regulations. The contributions are made to registered provident fund administered by the government. The obligation of the group is limited to the amount contributed and it has no further contractual nor any constructive obligation. Significant estimates: actuarial assumptions and sensitivity

The significant actuarial assumptions were as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Discount rate	7.24%	6.73%
Attrition rate	For service 4 years and below 20.00% p.a. For service 5 years and above 4.00% p.a.	For service 4 years and below 20.00% p.a. For service 5 years and above 4.00% p.a.
Salary growth rate	5.00%	5.00%
Retirement Age	58 Years	58 & 62 years

Note 41 : Employee benefit obligations (Contd.)

(v) Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to changes in the weighted principal assumptions is:

Particulars	Change in assumption		Increase in assumption		Decrease in assumption
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Discount rate	0.01	0.01	–	–	301.57	322.52
Discount rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	346.60	372.85	**–	–
Salary growth rate	0.01	0.01	334.27	362.16	**–	–
Salary growth rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	–	–	297.66	319.49
Attrition rate	0.01	0.01	47.39	36.93	**–	–
Attrition rate	(0.01)	(0.01)	–	–	54.54	43.08

The above sensitivity analysis are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit liability recognized in the balance sheet.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the prior period.

Fair value hierarchy

Level 1 : Hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. This includes listed equity instruments and mutual funds that have quoted price. The mutual funds are valued using the closing NAV.

Level 2 : The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (like forward contract) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3 : If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities etc. included in level 3.

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the group has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

Note 54 : FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Company's financial risk management is an integral part of how to plan and execute its business strategies. The Company's financial risk management policy is set by the Audit Committee of the Board of Director.

Market risk is the risk of loss of future earnings, fair values or future cash flows that may result from a change in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in the interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, equity prices and other market changes that affect market risk sensitive instruments. Market risk is attributable to all market risk sensitive financial instruments including investments and deposits, foreign currency receivables, payables and loans and borrowings.

The Company manages market risk through a Finance department, which evaluates and exercises independent control over the entire process of market risk management. The Finance department recommend the risk management objectives and policies, which are approved by Senior Management and the Audit Committee. The activities of this department include management of cash resources, implementing hedging strategies for foreign currency exposures like foreign exchange forward contracts, borrowing strategies and ensuring compliance with market risk limits and policies.

Market Risk- Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of the financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. In order to optimize the Company's position with regards to interest income and interest expenses and to manage the interest rate risk, finance department performs a comprehensive corporate interest rate risk management policy by balancing the proportion of fixed rate and floating rate financial instruments in its total portfolio.

According to the Company interest rate risk exposure is only for floating rate borrowings. For floating rate liabilities, the analysis is prepared assuming the amount of the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period was outstanding for the whole year. A 50 basis point increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the possibility that the counter party may not be able to settle their obligations as agreed. To manage this, the Company periodically assesses financial reliability of customer and other counter parties, taking into account the financial condition, current economic trends, and analysis of historical bad debts and ageing of financial assets. Individual risk limits are set and periodically reviewed on the basis of such information.

The Company consider the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis through each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Company compares the risk of default occurring on asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers reasonable and supportive forward looking information such as:

- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business,
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the counterparty,
- Financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the counterparty's ability to meet its obligations,
- Significant increase in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same counterparty,
- Significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of the third-party guarantees or credit enhancements.

Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectations of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Company. Where loans or receivables have been written off, the Company continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognized as income in the statement of Profit and Loss.

The Company measures the expected credit loss of trade receivables and loan from individual customer based on historical trend, industry practices and the business environment in which the entity operates. Loss rates are based on actual credit loss experience and past trends. Based on the historical data, loss on collection of receivables is not material hence no additional provision considered.
